

Who do you say that I am?

The identity of who Jesus is has been debated from the time he first appeared to the world. The truth is that the bible is full of clues to who he is and what he came to do. God always reveals to us his ultimate goal, but more often than not he does not let us know how he will perform what he has set out to do. Jesus' mission and his identity was not revealed to all people, only a select few actually knew who he is and what he came to do on earth. Peter was the first to proclaim who Jesus is when Jesus asked his disciples "Who do you say that I am?". But Jesus still asks this same question to us now, Who do you say that Jesus is?

Isaiah 53:3-5, 10-12

What is God's plan of salvation and how does he achieve it?

Isaiah 9:6-7

What type of Messiah were the Jewish people expecting?

Matthew 16:13-17

How did Simon (Peter) know who Jesus is?

So, Who do you say Jesus is? Ask Jesus, to show you who He is. Write down what you felt, heard, or saw when you asked Him the question. (Use the back of the paper, if necessary).
